

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

December 2019

John 16:33b NLT

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

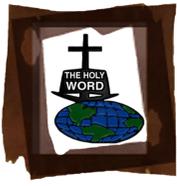

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online

"Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

John 16:33b NLT

December 2019

The Harvest Times

A Publication of World Missions

A Christmas Message

"I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play; and wild and sweet the words repeat, of peace on earth, good will to men."

Christmas music. This time of year, it's everywhere—playing in the stores and restaurants, and even broadcasting 24/7 on the radio. There's something uplifting, hopeful, and cheerful about it. Christ has come! Good tidings of great joy to all people! Peace on earth, good will to all men!

But to some, the music of Christmas can sound like so much noise, a sounding gong or a clanging symbol. What about my dying brother-in-law or my anger-filled home? What about my struggling church?

What about Haitians whose capitol city has seen street-filled riots this year? What about Bolivian pastors who have been threatened by political zealots? What about Albanians who have temporarily fled their homes because of an earthquake and multiple aftershocks? Where is the peace on earth and good will for them?

"And in despair I bowed my head: 'There is no peace on earth,' I said, 'For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will men.'"

Fortunately, the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow did not conclude his poem here. The story is incomplete. The stage has been set, but the Director—God Himself—has not yet signaled the final scene. Listen again to the message from the bells:

"Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 'God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men.'"

God is sovereign. Just as, in His plan and at the right time, a baby was born in Bethlehem, so in our lives and around the world, His glorious plan will be fulfilled in the end.

Thank you for partnering with the World Mission Department to spread this message of hope and true joy around the world. Merry Christmas!

World Missions

A Ministry of the Church of God (Holiness)

PO Box 4711

Overland Park, KS 66204

913-432-0303 www.coghworldmissions.org

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Financial Update

By Larry & Christy Doyle, Missionaries to Papua New Guinea

We are so thankful for God's great gift of salvation and His calling on all of us to serve in His kingdom. We are especially blessed that this calling takes us to another part of the world to do a specialized job.

We are also thankful to all of you who have stood by us and behind us on this journey—some for many years now, and a few from just weeks ago as we've had a chance to meet and share about the Kingdom work we are involved in.

Wycliffe and World Missions both require that we have pledges for our full budget before we are released to return to PNG. We are currently about 33% funded.

Our travels and visits enable us to see many of you, but there are a number of you we haven't seen yet. If you have been partnering with us and plan to continue in prayer or finances, could you please let us or the World Mission office know? Thank you!

Therefore We Will Not Fear

Content cannot be published online