Outreach in Ghana

More villagers in Ghana are hearing the Good News! National Director Samuel Arthur, known to us as Pastor Sammy, recently sent a report of various ministry activities in 2015.

In the six villages where we currently have churches, the believers are growing in grace. Pastor Sammy wrote, "We continued to communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ in the villages, while encouraging the believers in all the six churches . . . That is our mandate and main task. We do that regularly with all the churches, mostly on Sundays and some other days within the week.

"We nourish the people with the Word of God. People's faith is being lifted, family lives have changed, and idols have been abandoned for the worship of the true God."

But, that's not all.

"As a way of reaching out to many people with the gospel, we had a three-day evangelistic crusade in Bintini. Bintini is a small village 2 km west of Gberi where our church is. We evangelized there by showing the "JESUS" Film in our local dialect.

"Forty-two adults and fifty-two children came forward to receive Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, and we asked them to join the Church of God (Holiness) Ghana, Gberi branch, for fellowship. . . .

"We also went to another interior village called Sadakole. It is about 7 km from Glang and is only accessible on motor bike or bicycle and only in the dry season. We preached the gospel there, and some received Christ as their savior. As of now some walk on foot to have fellowship with the Church of God (Holiness), Glang branch."

The 2015 Annual Convention was held last Christmas in Gberi.

Please continue to pray for the leadership team and the believers in Ghana!

A new pastor, Pastor Zakaria, now ministers alongside Pastor George and Pastor Sammy.

AROUND THE WORLD

Haiti

HAITI

Last month, the Haitian churches held their convention at Dos Palais. Pastor Samson, the National Director, described it as a “precious time” and “unforgettable.” Each church was represented, and about 800 people attended the evening services. The results were God-given: 70 new converts, 48 people baptized, and 12 new leaders established.

Thank you for continuing to pray for the churches in Haiti.

CAYMAN BRAC

The Woods and the Church in Cayman Brac are praising God. On the last Sunday morning in January, two people accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior! That evening, the Woods showed the movie “War Room,” which challenges people to pray. They began a Bible study on that topic the following week.

God is moving in the Brac! Pray for David and Zenia and the believers there.
